AMERICANS STOP FIGHT NEAR THE MEXICAN BORDER

By Publishers' Press.

Agua Prieta, Mexico, April 13.—During a battle which lasted all the afternoon and resulted in the capture of the city of Red Lopez the American troops crossed the border and stopped the fighting after three men had been killed and several wounded in Douglas, Arizona. The continued firing was endangering the lives of the Americans in the United States territory. Douglas was under constant fire for three hours.

The insurgents today captured a town at Fronteers, South Agus. Prieta surprised the garrison of Agua Prieta composed of sixty-five men, and left the train just outside the city and marched to the west with short rushes, taking shelter behind the railroad embankment. Repeating their rifles over the rails they shot into the town.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of Princess Grandees, the diplomats and church and state dignitaries. The Chamberlain poured the water on the feet of the poor from a silver jug, while the maid of honor held the silver basin and towel.

Tom L. Johnson Laid to Rest in Brooklyn Cemetery

New York, April 14.—With solemn and fitting honors, the obsequies over the body of Tom L. Johnson, late mayor of Cleveland, were held today in Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn, near where his old friend, Henry George was laid to rest.

Accompanied by members of the Johnson family and many friends, the body of the former mayor was brought here from Cleveland on the private car Livingston, attached to the Twentieth Century Limited. William J. Bryan, Henry George, Jr., and Lincoln Steffens were among those to meet the funeral party at the Grand Central station, whence the cortege took its way to the cemetery.

In the party were Mrs. Margaret Johnson, widow of the mayor; Loftin E. Johnson, Mrs. Elizabeth Mariani and her daughter, Margaret Mariani; the family servants and a number of Ohio friends, including Rev. Harris R. Colley, who performed the funeral ceremony both here and at Cleveland, and the pallbearers: William J. Bryan; C. M. Bates, Trenton, N. J.; Ben J. Cable, Rock Island, Ill.; August Lewis, New York; Lincoln Steffens, F. C. Howe, Henry George, Jr.; A. J. Moxham, Senator Atlee Pomerene, of Ohio; and Dr. P. A. Brennan.

Frederico Moya and Dr. S. S. Seyferis, the peace envoys, returned to Chihuahua in automobiles from Madero's camp this afternoon.

HOUSE FAVORS THE ELECTION OF SENATORS BY THE PEOPLE

Constitutional Amendment Adopted by Overwhelming Vote of 296 to 16—Believed That Senate Will Pass Measure With Good Majority Over Required Two-Thirds Vote.

By Publishers' Press.

Washington, April 13.—By an overwhelming vote of 296 to 16 the House of Representatives tonight approved the election of senators by popular vote. The constitutional amendment now goes to the Senate for adoption before it goes to the states of the union for adoption, a two-thirds vote being necessary in the Senate.

An amendment offered by Representative Young, of Michigan, adding language that resembled the Southern amendment, adopted in the Senate two months ago, was defeated by a party vote of 121 to 184.

Senator Borah, of Idaho, who championed the measure in the last Congress when it failed to get the two-thirds majority by a margin of only four votes, stated tonight that the Senate would give the measure half a dozen votes more than necessary to bring about its adoption. After its adoption by the Senate three-fourths of the states will have to favor the measure before it becomes effective.

Thus the popular election of senators follows closely upon the income tax amendment, the latter now being well on its way to adoption by three-fourths of the states.

North Carolinians at Front are Having Good Time—Supreme Court Decision Saves $400,000 Taxes to Schools—No Second Primary in Raleigh—Republicans will Vote.

Special to The Telegram.

Raleigh, April 13.—It is learned that there will probably be a second call for a batch of five military officers of the North Carolina National Guard to go to the Texas maneuvers about April 25, the call to come from the War Department. It is interesting also that there will in all probability be something like three additional calls for squads of Carolina Guard officers to go to Texas for this camp training. Letters from Col. J. T. Gardner, Shelby; Major E. B. Glenn, Asheville, and Captains Hall and Phillips, who constitute the Carolina officers already enjoying this camp instruction indicate that they are well pleased. They write that the training they are receiving is being given in a most agreeable manner and everything is being done for their enjoyment as well as instruction. Gardner is assigned to the Eighteenth regiment, Glenn to the Thirtieth and Captains Hall and Phillips with the Eleventh, all assigned with regulars of their respective ranks.

Col. Gardner writes of a new field bake oven that is being demonstrated at the San Antonio camp. Seven of them furnish the bread for the 20,000 men. He attended lectures on bread-making with them and writes Adjutant General Leinster that one of these ovens, costing $300, would do the baking for Camp Glenn, Morehead. He is anxious for one to be procured for the North Carolina Guard. He doesn't promise to operate it, however.

The next electrocution for capital punishment out at the State's prison is scheduled for May 5. Lewis West the Wilson county murderer of Deputy Sheriff Munford is to be the victim. Then on May 12 there will be the electrocution of Norman Lewis, the Spring Hope murderer who killed the chief of police there. Then there are no more dates set until July 30 when the Yancey county murderer, Chas. Murphey, is scheduled to pay the death penalty. He has an appeal to the supreme court pending that may defer execution. Furthermore he is being represented to be insane and this may stay execution. He claims to know nothing of the killing. He was drinking and his victim refused to give him a drink in the public road. For this Murphey drew his revolver and shot him.

RAILROAD RATE REHEARING DENIED BY INTERSTATE COM.

Corporation Commission Sustained by Decision in Case of Norfolk and Western—Order for Reduction of Rates to Winston and Durham, From the West.

Special to The Telegram.

Raleigh, April 13.—Official notification came today to the Corporation Commission from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the latter refused the petition of the railroads to rehear the case of the Norfolk and Western, in which there is an order heretofore made effective on May 15th for considerable reductions in freight rates from Cincinnati, Roanoke and Lynchburg to Winston-Salem and Durham.

This is one phase of a long struggle on the part of North Carolina shippers against alleged discriminations in rates, as compared with rates from the west to Virginia cities.

Petition for a rehearing was by the Norfolk and Western, Southern and Seaboard Air Line, the last two being interested because of the possible effect the reductions ordered may have on their rates from the west to these and other Carolina points.

Developed there, also, a variety of bur clover that reseed itself for six years as a winter cover crop. Experiments there have also worked out a method of draining water falls that make serious inroads on available crop lands on many farms. This is only the third crop year for the Pender farm. Much new land is being cleared. One acre in lettuce has this spring already yielded a revenue of $600. Truck and fruit crops are the experiments on this farm, the purpose being to discover and introduce the best methods of growing and handling, for the benefit of farmers in that territory.

Having received his official copy of the ruling of the North Carolina supreme court on the validity of the 1911 State Revenue Act upholding the demand of Governor Kitchin that the state auditor be required to issue the blanks for tax levies on the basis of 1.35 and 1.45 for poll and property tax, respectively, instead of the poll tax for six cents less than the act itself specified in violation of the constitutional provision required, State Auditor Wood is having the levies made in accordance with the 1911 basis which saves to the public schools upwards of $400,000 revenue.

MONUMENT TO JEFFERSON PROPOSED BY SENATE

Cotton Men Given Prison Sentences And Heavy Fines

Aberdeen, Miss., April 15.—Judge H. C. Niles in the Federal district court here today sentenced J. H. Miller, who was found guilty of fraudulently using the mails, to seven years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $11,000. He was a member of the cotton firm of Steele, Miller & Co., T. C. Steele, and C. H. G. Linde, who accepted a verdict of guilty on the same charge, were sentenced to two years' imprisonment and a fine of $10,000 each.

The men were members of the cotton firm of Steele, Miller & Co., of Cornith, Miss., which failed several months ago. It was charged at the time of the failure that bogus bills of lading amounting to millions of dollars had been issued by the firm.

Indictments were found against Miller, Steele and Linde charging that fraudulent bills of lading were sent through the United States mail.

The men were placed on trial here last week.

The prisoners were brought into the court room today and the sentences were pronounced by Judge Niles. All three men were given sentences of two years each and a fine of $10,000.

Miller was then sentenced to an additional five years' imprisonment and fined an additional $1,000.

The convicted men will be confined in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta.

SENATORS CULLOM AND LODGE TO TAFT'S DEFENSE

St. Louis, April 13.—Eight lives are known to have been lost and a number of persons are missing, while many were injured in a tornado which swept Jefferson and St. Louis counties late this afternoon. The list of injured has not been compiled. In St. Louis alone the property loss will amount to more than $3,000,000.

The tornado came to St. Louis from the southwest, visiting the Cadet and Valley mine on its way. In North St. Louis the wind blew an eight story grain elevator, belonging to the Burlington Railroad, into the river. The elevator was fully stocked and the loss is $475,000. Hardly a window was left in the factories in that section of the city.

Bryan Hill public school, one of the largest in the city, was so badly damaged that it will have to be rebuilt.

The Senate also provided for the erection of a statue to Alexander Hamilton.

OWLS PERSISTENT IN EFFORTS TO NEST IN THIS STATE.

Special to The Telegram.

Raleigh, April 13.—The general counsel for the Supreme Nest of Owls, Southbound, Ind., Jonas Hoover, here from Chicago, in conference with State Commissioner of Insurance Young assured the North Carolina commission that the Owls do not intend to in any way infringe the Carolina insurance laws but insists that the work his order proposes to do in this state does not require any state license.

The commissioner informed him that every time a representative of his order attempts to form a nest in this state he will be arrested just as were the representatives in Charlotte recently. Hoover also insists that his Charlotte representatives have violated no law but explains that his mission to this state is to make the operations of his order in this state, and in South Carolina, where similar experience is being had with the commissioner of insurance, conform strictly to the state laws.

UNUSUAL DIVORCE CASE IN RICHMOND

Brown Helped Wife Secure Divorce in Order That She Might Marry Baptist Minister—Paid Expenses of Proceedings and Sent Woman Away to Man She Preferred.

Richmond, Va., April 13.—Nothing was discussed in South Richmond yesterday save the announcement of the marriage of Rev. J. C. Miles and Miss Rosa Lee Timmons, the divorced wife of Charles W. Brown.

Amazement was succeeded by a wave of indignation. Popular sympathy seems to be with Mr. Brown, in spite of the fact that his wife secured a divorce from him on statutory grounds—he says for the purpose of marrying the young man who, until a couple of months ago, was pastor of the Clifton Street Baptist church.

According to Mr. Brown, he became aware of his wife's infatuation with Mr. Miles about last Christmas time, but the divorce proceedings against him were not instituted until February 16 of this year. E. M. Pilcher was appointed commissioner by the Chancery court of Richmond, and before him depositions were taken which proved the statutory offense of Mr. Brown. The suit was not opposed, and the decree was signed by Judge Grinnan on March 13, granting an absolute divorce and permitting Mrs. Brown to resume her maiden name of Rosa Lee Timmons.

The woman left on March 31 to join Miles, and they were married in Chattanooga on April 4. It is said her husband is now pastor of a church at Marbury, Ala.

Mr. Brown now expresses satisfaction with the situation in spite of his apparent devotion to his former wife, for he consented to the proceedings which would make her the bride of her pastor.

During the hearing of the divorce proceedings Mrs. Brown went to the home of her mother on Venable street, where her husband visited her, and it is said, kept her supplied with funds. He bore the expense of the divorce proceedings. He and Miss Timmons were married at Pelham, N. C., on June 20, 1899.

It is stated by friends of the Browns, that the husband made over most of his property to his wife before the divorce and not only gave her the funds to secure the separation, but furnished the money for her trip to Tennessee.

An Honor to Allison.
"Do you know," inquired Wilbur Reaser, the New York portrait painter, "that when my painting of Senator Allison was hung in the lobby of the senate the precedent of forty years was broken?"

Surprise being expressed, Mr. Reaser explained:

"It is a fact that since the beginning of constitutional government the senate had bought only nine portraits for the lobby. The first was Washington's and the eighth was Charles Sumner's. For almost forty years nobody was considered worthy to follow in the distinguished line. It was generally thought that no other portrait would ever be added to the group, but when Senator Allison died, after serving longer in the senate than any other man in the history of the government, the rule was broken, and his picture became the ninth."—Washington Times.

German Bureaucracy.

A good story is going the rounds of the French newspapers illustrating the beauties of bureaucratic government in Germany. We are told that in the postoffice department if a clerk wishes a new pencil he has to hand in the stump of the one that has become too short to work with. In the particular instance cited a clerk received his new pencil without returning the end. Before the omission was discovered the clerk was transferred to another office. Just after he had commenced his duties at his new post he received an official intimation that he had neglected to hand in his pencil end. By this time it had disappeared, but to prevent bother the clerk purchased a new pencil, cut off a piece about the length of the missing bit and dispatched it to the stationery department.

Criticizing Dad.
"An old man in Missouri tried to commit suicide by banging himself with a blind bridle," said Champ Clark. "His son cut him down just in time."

"When the son cut him down and brought him to the old man complained feebly:

"It ain't right, Henry; you've kept your old father out of heaven."

"You'd cut a fine figure in heaven looking through a blind bridle, wouldn't you?" retorted the son."

LABOR NOTES

The American Federation of Labor will be represented in the world's congress of labor, to be held this year, in Budapest, Hungary. An effort is to be made at that session to establish a world-wide organization of all the labor bodies with a system of international, interchangeable working cards.

Confronted with facts and figures showing that the universities of the empire are turning out young lawyers, doctors and other professional men at a rate far exceeding the growth of the population, certain German educators, says the Chicago News, are agitating the question of limiting the university attendance.

The bar and bottle act was passed by the Massachusetts legislature last year to provide that after the first of May this year no bar license shall be issued to be exercised on the same premises with a bottle license. The intent of the act is to prevent the sale of liquor by the glass and by the bottle in the same place.

The old employee is the valuable one. Economy of time and energy are obtained by few changes. Men familiar with the work can increase the output. With an interest in the business, they will take notice of a thousand minute points of advantage to the employer, which they would not otherwise regard.—Columbus News.

Leaders among the Indiana miners are worrying about the outlook for the 18,000 miners in Indiana this spring and summer. There is present distress in a number of mining localities because of a lack of work. Some mines have been idle five-sixths of the time since the first of the year. Some have worked three days a week. A few have been operated every day.

The Indiana Steel company's plant at Gary, Ind., employs 6000 men. Now approaching completion are the twenty-two mills of the American sheet and tinplate company, which adjoin the steel works. By the end of 1911 the steel corporation will have expended for construction alone $85,000,000. Late in the fall the factory of the Gary Bolt and Screw company, a concern which removed to Gary from Pittsburg, will be placed on the producing list. It will employ 1000 hands.

Notice has been given by the Southern Pacific railroad of the transfer of its firemen, conductors and brakemen from Oakland, Cal., to Tracy. This means that soon between 3,000 and 4,000 residents of Oakland will be compelled to remove to Tracy. According to bulletins posted by the Southern Pacific the working week of all yard employees is reduced to five days. This means that men who have been earning from $90 to $1.00 a month will in the future have difficulty in making more than $50 to $80 a month. All overtime for the workmen is also abolished.

Governor Johnson, of California, signed the eight-hour bill for women. "The argument against the eight-hour day for women is purely economic," is the decision expressed by the governor in a comprehensive statement accompanying the signature of the bill, and he instances that the same arguments have been raised against child labor, pure food and mining and smelting legislation. "The smelters still run," observes the statement, "and additional ones are being built." The statement takes the further position that "production will not be materially decreased under an eight-hour law."

Returns from English cotton firms employing 133,940 workpeople, in the week ended February 25, showed an increase of 0.3 per cent in the number employed, and of 1.4 per cent in the amount of wages paid, compared with a month ago. Compared with a year ago, there was an increase of 3.9 per cent in the number employed, and of 18.3 per cent in the amount of wages paid. In the woolen and worsted trades, compared with a year ago, there was an increase of 4.1 per cent in the number employed, and of 5.0 per cent in the amount of wages paid. In all the principal districts employment continued good, and was better than a year ago. Overtime and night work were common.

There is a great demand for labor of every kind. Fifteen million farmers are wanted in Texas, and 15,000,000 working men are needed here. Mechanics and artisans of every craft, as well as common laborers, command high wages. If the workmen who are crowded together in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and other cities could realize how much better off they would be down here, and how much healthier their families would be, perhaps some of them might come and accept the advantages that are offered in this section. There is room for everybody in Texas. There is wealth for everybody who knows an opportunity when he sees it and has the brains to utilize it. Never have there been such rapid increases of population, trade, building, property values, and, in every other respect, as have occurred in Dallas during the last five years. Everything has doubled.—Dallas letter in Chicago Record-Herald.

Tsar and Czar.

Frequently the inquiry is made as to why the spelling tsar, to designate the emperor of all the Russias, should be preferred to czar. The most natural and obvious answer is that the spelling indicates the Russian pronunciation of the word, which czar does not. The title comes from an old Slavonic word, which some authorities are agreed is not derived from the Latin caesar, but there are authorities who hold that its ultimate derivation is from the Roman. The origin of the common spelling is supposed to be the writings of Herberstein, about 1550. The letter "c" in Roman-Slavonic has the sound of "ts." The letter was copied, but the sound was not. The letter "z" never belonged in the word. The spelling czar is now regarded by many as old fashioned. With some Germans the spelling is zar, which is pronounced tsar. Many of the French have adopted tsar as the spelling, and that form is increasing in English. The London Times, a most careful authority, employs it, and so does the Encyclopedia Britannica in its supplementary volumes.—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Green Constable.

A new constable on duty in a provincial town handed to a sergeant a shilling which he said he had found. The man with the three stripes told him he was quite right in acting as he had done. Proceeding on his round, the sergeant met a brother sergeant and, with a grin, told him the tale of the shilling. They both agreed the new recruit was very green, and at the conclusion of their duties they went to the nearest inn, and the possessor of the coin called for two drinks. On receiving them he threw down the shilling to pay for them, but the landlord refused it, saying it was a bad one. The sergeant, notoriously mean, had to supply the requisite amount out of his own pocket and also to put up with the laugh against himself. On his telling the constable his find was a bad one the man answered: "Yes, of course it was. Do you think I would have been silly enough to give it to you if it hadn't been?"—Pearson's.

MAJOR HEMPHILL MEMORIAL DAY ORATOR IN RALEIGH

Richmond Editor Speaks at Capital on May 10th.

Raleigh, April 13.—Raleigh is to be congratulated on the fact that the Ladies' Memorial association of this city has secured as the orator for Memorial day—the Tenth of May—Maj. J. C. Hemphill, editor of the Richmond Times-Dispatch. His acceptance of the invitation to speak was received yesterday by Mrs. Robert H. Jones, president of the Raleigh Ladies' Memorial association.

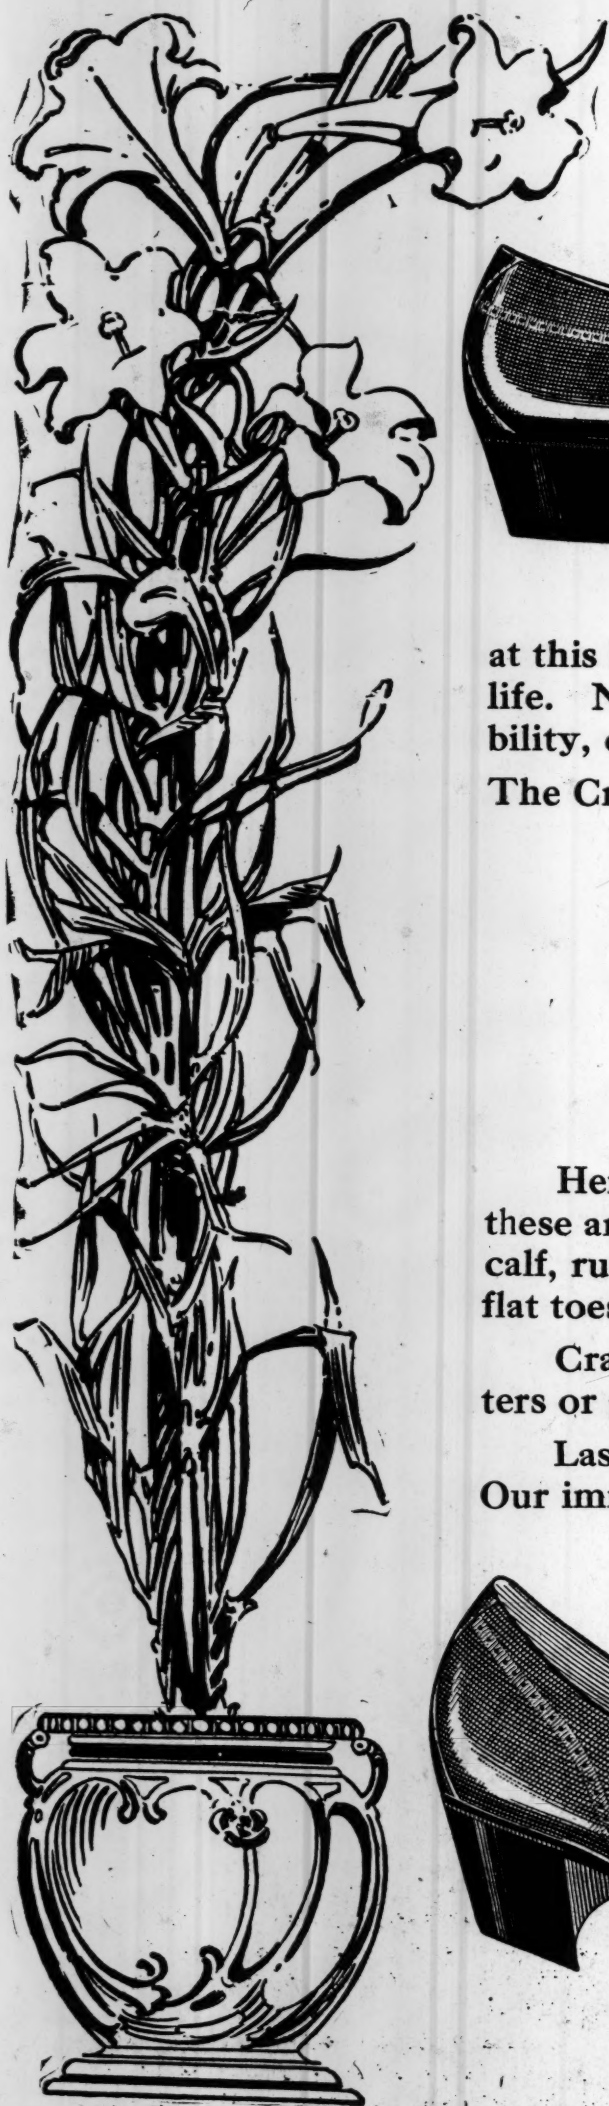

Maj. Hemphill is one of the great editors of the country, and besides this is a most eloquent and forceful speaker. For many years he was the editor of the Charleston, (S. C.) News and Courier, retiring from that position to become the editor of the Richmond Times-Dispatch. Each of these positions he has held with conspicuous ability.

Major Hemphill is a native of South Carolina, and his intimate personal knowledge of the days of the Civil War means that his address will be one that will be worth hearing. The city is to be congratulated that he accepts the invitation, the Ladies' Memorial association deserves thanks for securing him as the orator. He will be given a warm welcome, a great and appreciative audience.

If Mr. Ballinger is not otherwise engaged he might secure employment at Mexico City as official denter of the rumors that President Diaz will resign.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

M., of North Carolina, which will convene here in annual session May 24 and continue through to the 27. A large crowd of delegates from the various tribes of the State is expected and the committees are preparing for elaborate entertainment. This will be the first time the State Council has met in this city and the local Red Men here are desirous of making this one of the most enjoyable sessions ever held.

Governor William Walton Kitchin, who recently became a Red Man, has been invited to be present and deliver an address before the State body. This would add much to the interest and attractiveness of the meeting and members of the big order of Red Men and citizens generally are hoping that the Chief Executive may accept. Other prominent Red Men, who have attained much success in every walk of life, are expected and will be invited to make addresses.

Business sessions will be held during the three days, both morning and afternoon, and the evenings will be devoted to social pleasures. It is probable that water trips will be one of the attractions, and in addition to these, receptions and banquets will be attractive features.

Great Chief of Records W. Ben Goodwin, former head of the State Order, is the leader of the committees, having the preparations in charge and he states that nothing will be left undone by both the local tribe and citizens of Elizabeth City to entertain the visitors in royal style.

At the Thursday evening's meeting, thirty candidates were admitted into the mysteries known only to the Red Men tribes. The fact of the approaching meeting of the State Council here is spurring the members to increase the membership of the local tribe and it is expected that a large number will have been admitted before the convening of the council.

Kicked By a Mad Horse
Samuel Birch, of Bestown, Wis., had a most narrow escape from losing his leg, as no doctor could heal the frightful sore that developed, but at last Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it completely. Where One's Breath Falls as Snow.
Verkholsk, a small village in the northeast of Siberia, is the coldest place in the world. It is a convict station. No precautions against escape are needed, for Verkholsk is guarded by the wind. Though the average temperature of the three worst winter months is 85 degrees of frost, intense cold like this is easy to bear in calm weather. But a strong breeze at that temperature or within 20 degrees of it will kill every living thing not under shelter. In the icy cold of Verkholsk an iron ax head dropped on the ground smashes like glass. A board of unseasoned wood, on the other hand, freezes as hard as steel. Frozen nicotine blocks the stem of tobacco pipes, while one's breath falls at one's feet in a fine white powder.

UNIQUE PLAN FOR G. F. COLLEGE ENDOWMENT ADOPTED

Alumnae Association is Raising $10,000 Endowment for Chair of English.

The Alumnae Association of Greensboro Female college has adopted a very unique plan in their endeavor to raise the $10,000 for which they are working to endow the chair of English. Each of the handsome colonial pillars around the circular front porch, whose actual cost is to be $400, is to be bought by former pupils from the college for $500, these to be a memorial to each president. With the sum a handsome oil painting, costing $100, is to be made of the president, and a brass plate with inscription is to be placed on the pillar, the remainder of the amount to be used toward the chair of English. As at the time the college was burned, all the portraits of the presidents were destroyed, it is known that each former student will feel it a privilege to contribute something toward this fund, and by so doing restore this loss, and at the same time help the chair of English.

Contributions to this fund will be most gratefully received by members of the local associations or by sending to the president, Mrs. Lucy H. Robertson, at Greensboro Female college.

Chartered in 1838, it is the second oldest chartered college for women in the South. During the seventy-three years of its existence the following presidents have served the college: Rev. Solomon Lea, Rev. A. M. Shipp, Rev. Charles F. Deems, D. D., Rev. T. M. Jones, D. D., Dr. B. F. Dixon, Dr. Frank L. Reid, Dr. Dred Peacock, and the beloved acting president, Mrs. Lucy H. Robertson.

"When is the best time to die?" gravely asks a contemporary. "Just before you try to introduce an old friend to an acquaintance and can't remember his name."—Claveland Leader.

Justifiable Protest.

"My wife is one of the unluckiest persons I know," began a Cedar avenue man, who tells long stories about his household affairs.

"She sure is," agreed the victim of the conversation fervently. But his mild sarcasm was lost.

"She was hit by a street car recently," pursued the narrator, "and got a broken arm. That's the fourth time in less than a year that something has happened to her. When they brought her to her senses this time I leaned over her sympathetically. 'Better, my dear?' says I. 'It ain't fair!' she yells. 'What ain't fair?' I asks gently. 'Why,' she groans, 'you're the one that carries all the accident insurance in this family, and I'm the one that always gets hurt. It ain't fair!'"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Kangaroo's Kick.

When a big "old man" kangaroo stiffens his tail and converts it into a sort of revolving pivot bearing the whole weight of his body, leaving his tremendously powerful legs free for attack and defense, everybody who does not want to be ripped up or thrown in a heap for a considerable distance will give the marsupial a wide berth. Only those who have seen the full grown kangaroo in his native Australian bush with his back to a tree, scattering dogs, bleeding and torn, right and left, can form any adequate idea of the prodigious strength the animal is capable of exerting when he finds himself in a tight corner.

The Old Man's Opinion.

Mr. Scripps—I asked your daughter a very important question last night, and she referred me to you.

Old Gentleman—H'm! What did you ask her?

"I asked her if she'd marry me."

"Well, she won't."

"Eh? Has she said so?"

"No, but from what I know of the girl I don't believe she would have bothered herself about me if she had really wanted you."—New York Weekly.

Tommy's Decision.

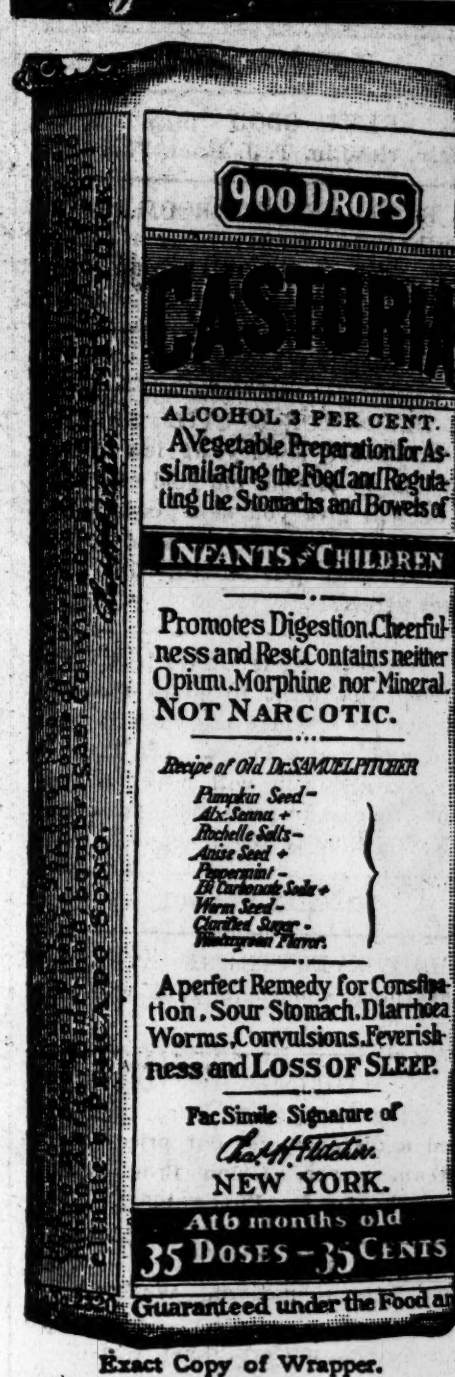

Teacher—Now, Tommy, suppose a man gave you $100 to keep for him and then died, what would you do? Would you pay for him? Tommy—No, sir, but I would pay for another like him.

Domestic Joys.

"Do you and your wife play cards much?"
"No; we have plenty of other things to quarrel over."—Detroit Free Press.

An exclusive dining society in London is the one bearing the arrogant title the Club, which since its foundation has been limited to thirty-five members. Cottolene is a vegetable product—made from the choicest cotton oil. Its source is the cotton fields of the Sunny South. From Cottonfield to Kitchen human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made.

Compare the source of Cottolene with the source of lard—hog-fat—and you'll cease to wonder why lard-cooked food throws the stomach out of kilter and causes indigestion.

Cottolene is of absolutely pure origin and ancestry, and will make palatable, digestible, healthful food.

Test Cottolene fairly—note the beneficial effect of Cottolene food on the family's digestion—and you'll never have a pound of lard in your kitchen again.

BRYAN DECLARES MARTIN TO BE AN ALDRICH DEMOCRAT

Senator Martin voted eighteen times with Senator Aldrich, more than any other Democrat, save two from Louisiana."

Final Game May Not be Played

The third and final game between the universities of North Carolina and Virginia may not be played this year. The managers of the two teams decided Monday night to play the final game either at Greensboro or Charlotte instead of at Charlottesville as scheduled. However, the Charlottesville people did not like this idea and it was finally decided by the Virginians to play the game where Carolina suggested, provided Carolina would play two return games in Charlottesville on May 8-9. However, this is the time when the Tar Heels are busy with Spring examinations and it is hardly probable that the third game will be played. If it is played in Carolina it will be played in Greensboro.

Women and Society

THE DIFFERENCE

(By CARA REESE.)

Men are definite. Women are indefinite. And there you have the whole secret. This is one reason why the men folks should never have a hand in corporal punishment of children.

The man is definite at all times. When he is serious-minded he is serious. When he is in a bad-temper, he shows the bad temper and sincerely acts the part. When he has a grouch, the whole house and the whole office know it. When he is sulky there is no guess work on the part of the beholder. When he is "mad clear through" he wears no saintly smile to disguise the fact. When he is hungry he pounds the table and when he is ill, the whole neighborhood knows.

A woman is different. She may be as angry as a hornet but yet preserve an outward and pleasing calm. She may be starving but yet smile sweetly and disguise both appetite and impatience. She may possess a villainous temper and yet smother it under a placid demeanor to suit her whim. The same with her foibles and extravagances or her various tastes or desires. In other words no skill of any sort has ever been able to definitely place or classify a woman. No power may actually know, when a woman is positively angry, or positively pleased, or positively of some particular mind. It is the indefiniteness which gives to her a charm.

It is this indefiniteness which really gives her a sort of power as disciplinarian. The youngster is just as likely to receive a pretty good spanking or application of the slipper for a trivial fault, as he is just as likely to escape any sort of a reprimand or punishment for some graver and more serious defection. He is never quite sure as to what is coming to him from "mother." This leads to a certain piquancy in the mind of the child. There is some wholesome anxiety, a great deal of hopefulness and a mental exercise as to the possibility of new schemes to be applied.

He has been tied to the leg of the table. He has been stood in the corner or sent supperless to bed. He has been "warned," exhorted and dressed like a girl. It is the indefiniteness of the mother which really animates rather than terrifies into stupid numbness the faculties of the child.

For, when father takes hold, he takes hold in a definite fashion. He raises welts, he bruises the flesh, he stupefies the brain. The element of fear arises instead of a brisk calculating as to the stress and strain. Never let a man touch the children to give them corporal punishment. He is too definite. When he punishes, he punishes. Never—unless it be for immorality and the case is beyond feminine ingenuity—let him thrash the children. The indefinite management stimulates a wholesome, healthful guessing.

church two years ago under sensational circumstances. The new congregation has never built a house of worship yet. The county court house was used for quite a while.

It is definitely decided that there is to be no second primary for Raleigh in the impending contest for city offices. The candidates receiving the most votes next Monday are to be declared the nominees. The Republicans are to have no ticket in the field and a great many citizens who usually vote the Republican ticket are registering for the Democratic primary, this being their only chance to have a voice in the election. Of course, in registering for the Democratic primary they pledge to abide by the result. The balloting is to be under Australian regulations. It looks now like ex-Mayor James Johnson will win over J. Stan. Wynne, the present mayor and like a majority of the "good government" candidates for alderman will be chosen. The Good Government League is concentrating its efforts toward the election of aldermen, leaving their mayor, J. S. Wynne, to fight his own battle.

The commencement of Shaw University here is announced to take place May 7 to 11. This will be the Forty-sixth commencement. The baccalaureate sermon will be by Dr. M. B. W. Norman, Washington, D. C., and the commencement address by Dr. Judson B. Thomas, of Chicago.

A charter is issued for the A. C. House Lumber Co., of Weldon, capital $100,000, by A. C. House and others for a general timber and lumber business.

A recent change in the internal revenue service here and at Durham has just received the "O. K." of the Civil Service Commission through Secretary L. H. Fisher of the Fourth division. W. P. Singletary resigned a deputyship in the Durham office and V. C. Garrard was transferred from the Raleigh office of Collector Wheeler Martin to Durham and Chas. C. Fagan of Darden was put on here in the place of Garrard. There was complaint that the appointment here was not a proper selection from the eligibles of the civil service waiting list. However, the whole transaction now gets the approval of the Civil Service secretary. The contention of the dissatisfied was that F. N. Gattis, formerly in the service, was entitled to the appointment.

The Mush Island Company, of Weldon, is chartered with $50,000 capital authorized, for dairy farming and mercantile business. George C. Green and W. M. Cohen are among the incorporators.

Numbers of the county tax assessors recently appointed by the corporation commission as state tax commission under the new Machinery Act are coming to Raleigh from day to day for conferences with the commission as to their duties, which begin May 1. There were here Assessors Jno. Elliott, of Cumberland; J. T. McAdams, of Orange, and James Amos of Vance county. The commissioners are going over with the assessors the features of their duties, which include the supervision of the assessments by the assistant township assessors, sitting with the county commissioners as county board of equalization and representing the state tax commission in assessment matters generally.

The present property assessments in North Carolina aggregate upwards of $813,000,000 and the leaders in the legislature in basing the revenue legislation figured at least an increase of one hundred millions of property values. Many in close touch with the approaching work of the tax assessing officials believe the totals will run considerably more than the hundred millions increase.

The State Tax Commission will soon issue a general letter of instructions for the county assessors and there will be special instructions as to conditions in specific counties. The effort is to secure a more thorough equalization of standards of value in the several counties as they relate to standards in other sections of the state and avoid complaints that figured so prominently during the legislature as to inequalities.

It is just about time for the "last call" for Spring.

Charleston has a baseball team. That high priced Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce may be responsible for it.

As a "come back" proposition Winter is some distance ahead of anybody who has heretofore made an effort to return.

"Tom L. Johnson was an honest man" is the opinion of an exchange. What higher encomium could be spoken of a man after he is dead?

There is some evidence to sustain the belief that most of the liars of the country are employed as war correspondents on the Mexican border.

President Taft opened the baseball season in Washington, so it seems that Taft finds time to attend the games despite the fact that he has Congress on his hands.

Says the Durham Sun: "Already the howl of the boll weevil is heard in the land." The Sun is mistaken. The boll weevil raises no howl. It does its work silently but surely.

Durham Sun suggests that Governor Kitchen is learning the ways of the Red Men in order to be prepared to take the scalp of Senator Simmons.

The backbone of Winter has been broken innumerable times during the past few weeks, but the old gentleman always succeeds in getting his spine repaired.

Greenville Piedmont says the Weather Man is not a standpatter. Where did the Piedmont acquire that idea? The Weather Man has been standing pat for several weeks on his determination to spoil all the ball games.

Senator Heyburn wants to encourage the reading of the Congressional Record by reducing the price from $4 per session to $1. That might help to popularize the Record; which, despite the fact that it is continually the subject of newspaper jest and gibe, is a journal by no means uninteresting. We have known people who read the Record regularly and with great profit to themselves. For the busy man, however, the mass of reading matter it contains is too great. No busy man can afford the time necessary to peruse all the pages of this record of the daily doings in both branches of Congress.

The late Tom L. Johnson was a fine example of the possibilities of American citizenship—the possibilities for achievement within the grasp of a southern man, if you please; and one whose period of action was largely at a time when Southern men were moving under a cloud and when their opportunities were less favorable to success than at present.

Johnson was a Kentuckian, and was possessed of some of the characteristics of the best type of Kentuckians. His energy was dynamic in action. He was a fighter, and also a good loser—a loser who always returned to the contest smiling and who never gave up. He was one of the common people in his estimate of life. He was of genial nature, big hearted, generous and chivalrous, as the best of the Kentuckians of the lowlands are.

By hard work, superior judgment and business capacity Johnson acquired a large fortune, and then began a career devoted to efforts to help the masses. It is undoubtedly true that he was largely inspired to this purpose by the life and teachings of Henry George, the great advocate of the single tax idea and friend of the common people. The stuff of which reformers are made was in Johnson's composition, however. George applied the stimulus needed to send him forth on this career.

Tom Johnson was the friend of the people and never deserted their cause. He maintained the fight in their interest in Cleveland until the people themselves announced that they had tired of the conflict. They surrendered; Johnson did not. With his fortune gone—spent mainly in supporting his numerous conflicts for the public welfare—Tom Johnson's views did not change and his demeanor was the same. He went down to the sunset of life smiling and unafraid; a worthy member of the race to which he belonged and a Kentucky gentleman to the end.

IOWA'S NEW SENATOR.

Judge William S. Kenyon, the newly elected United States Senator who will succeed the late Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver of Iowa, is a native of Ohio, and was born at Elyria in 1869. He finished his education at Grinnell, Iowa, studied law and was admitted to the bar. His first public office was that of prosecutor in Webster county, Iowa. He was Judge of the Eleventh District until 1903, was general counsel of the Illinois Central Railroad in 1907 and in 1910 was appointed Assistant Attorney General of the United States. His home is at Fort Dodge.

Senator Kenyon was elected on the sixty-seventh ballot in the Legislature, after a deadlock which lasted from January 17th. Judge Kenyon defeated Supreme Court Justice Horace E. Deemer, Republican, and Claude R. Porter, Democrat, on the final ballot for Senator.

Iowa's new Senator is practically unknown in the country at large, while he has attained to some prominence in his own State. His career will be watched with interest, and the public awaits some statement from him which will indicate how he stands on public questions and where he is to be listed in the classification of Republican Senators.

ANNIVERSARY OF ODD FELLOW-SHIP.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows was founded in Baltimore on April 26, ninety-two years ago. The organization has grown into one of the largest fraternal orders, numerically, in the world. The total membership is now 2,000,000. The growth of the order has been phenomenal, in view of the fact that the history of fraternities show that those which survive and become firmly established are of slow growth.

The order of Odd Fellows is one of the foremost fraternal organizations in the world in every respect, and the good it has accomplished has been widespread and will never be fully understood or measured by the public.

This fact is true, also of the work of fraternal orders in general. In the nature of the case but little of the real work of the various orders can be made public, and the consequence is that people outside of the fraternities are not informed in regard to much of their work and know nothing of much of the good accomplished. There is little prejudice nowadays against secret order in the minds of those who do not belong to any order; and the established orders, which have proven their right to exist and to the confidence and respect of the country's best citizens, are regarded with favor in all quarters.

Among this number none stand higher than the Odd Fellows; no order has grown more rapidly and none gives greater promise of continued usefulness.

THE DIVORCE EVIL.

One of the most certain and alarming signs of moral decadence in this country is the increasing proportions of the divorce evil. This country may be improving in some respects, but in this there is serious retrogression from the dictates of reason and right. The divorce evil is spreading to most of the States and to all sections of these States. It is perniciously dangerous to the welfare of the country and to the stability and decency of society. If allowed free course, as it apparently is already in some of the States, it will undermine our social system, wreck the morals of the people, destroy the sanctity of home life and bring upon the country innumerable other misfortunes. The divorce evil is a great problem and it is rapidly and steadily growing larger. It is even now crying out for the thoughtful, serious consideration of all right-thinking and right-living citizens. It must be studied and some method devised to stay its relentless course and reckless ravaging.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

THE KITCHEN

Dutch Roll.

Ingredients—Half a pound of mince, half a teaspoonful of breadcrumbs, half a teaspoonful of chopped parsley and a teaspoonful of ketchup, salt and pepper. Method—Put the mince, parsley and breadcrumbs into a basin with salt and pepper to season; add to the water and ketchup to bind it. Form into a roll with floured hands; place the roll in a roasting pan with a spoonful of dripping, and bake for 30 minutes, basting every seven minutes. When cooked lift on a hot dish. Pour away the dripping and add to the tin a tablespoonful of flour moistened with water; let it boil up and pour over the roll. You will find this will make a delicious Dutch roll, enough for three or four persons.

Apple Dumpling.

Ingredients—Eight ounces of flour and four ounces of butter, a teaspoonful of water, six apples and a heaped up tablespoonful of currants. Method—Mix the flour, butter, baking powder and water into a light paste, peel and core the apples and fill the cavity with the currants. Roll out the paste, cut in rounds, place the apples in the center of each, wet the edges of the paste and press them to a point on the top of the apples. Place them jam downwards on a baking sheet and bake in a moderate oven for about 20 minutes. When nearly done, brush over with cold water and dredge well with fine sugar. Serve either hot or cold.

Caramel Cream.

Put two ounces of sugar into a small pan, with half a gill of water; boil to a light brown color. Run into the bottom of the plain, buttered mold and let it cool. Beat up four eggs in a basin, with six ounces of castor sugar, half a teaspoonful of essence of lemon, half a pint of milk and half a pint of cream. Strain into the mold. Place in a stewpan half filled with water for 40 minutes. Serve cold.

A Spring Suggestion by a Trained Druggist.

Appendicitis and many other ills come from Constipation and over-loading with food which the system cannot care for. The bowels must be cleared and antiseptized to give their normal functions and this should not be done by strong Cathartics, as every physician will tell you. Vick's Little Liver Pills have been the bowels and mild stimulation to the lazy liver and thus cure trouble in adults or children.

'Arry—I 'eard you've got a job, Bill. Is it a fact?

Bill—Yus, it's true; but there ain't no cause for anxiety. It's only temporary!—London Opinion.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PARDON.

Application will be made to the Governor of North Carolina for the pardon of Joe Andrews convicted of larceny in the August 1910 term of the Guilford county court and sentenced to the work house for one year. All persons who may wish to oppose the granting of said pardon are invited to forward their protests to the Governor at once.

A Reliable Medicine—Not A Narcotic

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Howard Gardner.

He was in the mountains on the advice of five doctors, who said he had consumption, but found no help in the climate, and started home. Hearing of Dr. King's New Discovery, he began to use it. The Sound Sleep of Good Health.

Can not be over estimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Souther, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley Kidney Pills have cured me." Howard Gardner.

"Didn't I give you a piece of pie last week?" demanded the cooking school graduate. "I didn't expect to see you again so soon." "I fooled you, ma'am," replied the tramp. "I didn't eat it."—Philadelphia Record.

Talk to Mothers.

There is need in the home for cuts, bruises, sores and sprains, children and others are heirs to a real good antiseptic liniment, one which will not burn and hurt worse than the wound itself, and which will give the greatest relief and prevent scars. Vick's Liniment is prepared for this purpose. Take this suggestion from a trained druggist who knows.

HINTS FOR THE BOUDOIR.

(By MILDRED WYCKOFF.)
Cold Baths.

One of the finest tonics in the world is a cold dip early in the morning, but it is not everyone who can take it—at all events during the winter. Many people have cold baths and find them very beneficial. One should not begin to take them in the middle of the winter, and later they should be discontinued if the reaction is not prompt and effective. By that, I mean the glow and feeling of warmth which should occur immediately after taking a cold bath.

If one, on the contrary, feels cold and shivery the bath is not doing good, and should not be continued.

People who are very thin are not likely to react well, and the cold bath frequently makes them lose flesh. Often it is recommended to reduce flesh.

Cold baths, like many other things, must be determined by the effects on the individual and should not be taken indiscriminately. It should always be remembered that cold baths are used only as a tonic and must not be considered as cleansing.

Coffure Flowers.

What you wear in your hair may make you a beauty or the reverse. It may be smart to wear something hard and glittering in the coiffure when it is dressed for the evening but it may not be becoming.

For this reason the popular gold and silver bandaux are not suitable to every wearer neither is the diamond tiara unless worn far enough from the face not to dim the luster of the eyes.

Another item that is not becoming to the eyes is roses and other deep hued flowers worn close to the face. They are certain to make the eyes lose in depth.

A girl must be sure of her color if she is to sport gold and silver flowers in her hair.

For the same reason the favorite lining to hats of gold or silver tissue over white satin is apt to be taken away of beauty. Flowers that have a hard sheen and vivid tone are infinitely more trying to the complexion even of rosy checked youth than a velvet flower or those of soft colorings.

Unless sure of your features do not wear anything in your hair, despite the fashion. The snub-nosed, the round-faced and the haggard woman seldom looks anything but a conquest in the latest thing in coiffure ornaments.

Avoid Chemicals.

One in Despair—There is no safe chemical that will destroy hair. The electric needle used by a skillful surgeon, is the only thing I could recommend.

Dr. W. T. Whitsett, of Whitsett Institute, spent several hours in the city yesterday en route to and from Bain Academy, Mint Hill, where he delivered the commencement address at the closing exercises yesterday afternoon.—Charlotte Observer.

Making a Rag Book.

It is always a difficult task to find a suitable gift for babies and young children generally, for, however young the recipient may be, the giver likes to have the satisfaction of knowing that the gift is one that even baby takes an interest in.

A rag book is a gift that never fails to please. To make one, buy a few yards of plain calico. The calico should be torn into strips, each inside page being allowed two thicknesses, so that a picture can be painted on each side. This can be managed by tearing the strips twice the size of the required page, then simply folding it into one page. The cut edges of these pages must be bound together and well sewed and so form the back of the book, and all is made neat and tidy by the outside cover, which is one single piece of calico. The pages are placed in this, and the cover is stitched to the back of the book.

The cover need only be of one thickness, as it does not require a picture on the inside of it.

The pictures may now be drawn or traced on the pages, or the decorations may be done before the book is made up. The stains must be applied evenly and flatly to the various objects, outlining the shapes with waterproof India ink.

Ideas will come thick and fast as the worker proceeds, so a few suggestions as to the decoration of the book will suffice. An A B C book will be most useful for little ones learning to read.

For ordinary purposes water colors will do for the staining, but if the books are to be washed often dyes or marquerite stains must be used, one or two colors doing any amount of books. Nursery rhymes and tales may be illustrated. Tracings can always be taken from books and the wording printed with ink.

When Measles Comes.

Measles does not come on for seven to twelve days after a child has been exposed to infection. The first symptoms resemble a cold in the head, running at the nose, a good deal of sneezing, redness of the eyes, etc., and this is followed in twenty-four hours by a slight cough. On the second or third day the temperature begins to rise noticeably. On the fourth day the familiar red rash appears on the face, giving it a blotchy, swollen look. In a few hours this spreads to the trunk and neck.

Measles is the third most fatal disease of children. If the proper precautions are taken the other little ones in the house may escape entirely. The younger the child the greater the danger. When measles breaks out in the family see that the youngest children, at any rate, are carefully protected from catching it.

The only treatment necessary is rest in bed in a well lighted and well ventilated room, a light milk diet and complete isolation from other children. As the child recovers great care must be taken against exposure to drafts, damp, etc., for colds caught during convalescence from measles are very apt to turn to bronchitis and pneumonia. It is these diseases, coming on after the measles attack proper has almost passed off, that make this ailment one of the most dangerous of childhood.

The Children's Room.

Every nursery should have furniture of the simplest design, so that it can be washed daily. The lines should be low and broad, so that the children can clamber into the chairs easily and when they fall not have far to go.

A broad low window seat is a good idea, for children who play too long on the floor are apt to get cold. This should be near windows that are protected with wooden bars, so there is no possibility of falling out. It should be less than a foot high and have washable cushions.

Every nursery should have a dresser for the toys. The lower drawers of such a dresser could be used for the nursery linen.

Though some mothers object to flowerpots in the nursery, there is much to be said in their favor. They make a window ledge so gay that it is hard to resist them. If they are used they should be highly glazed, either in blue or white, and should hold simple springlike blossoms.

Babies' Bonnets.

The newest bonnets for babies are made of white liberty satin. They are close fitting, but the satin is pulled on the crown, the band around the face being plain. Embroidered side pieces are set in, the most attractive design being tiny forget-me-not wreaths. Where the ribbon ties are set on there are rosettes of the white satin, in the center of which are tiny rosebuds.

There are other bonnets also of the liberty satin which have full crowns and the satin draped over the straight piece which forms the front. These are trimmed with narrow pink or blue velvet ribbon.

Embroidered batiste caps have the tiniest bouquets of pink and blue flowers set on the left side of the front.

THRONGS OF BUYERS CONTINUE

Special Half Price Brings Many Patrons to Howard Gardens.

The people of Greensboro and vicinity appreciate the great advantage Howard Gardner obtained for them, in getting Dr. Howard Co. to allow the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific to be sold at half price, 25 cents, and have bought hundreds of bottles.

Unlike ordinary medicines for constipation and dyspepsia, the dose of Dr. Howard's specific is reduced after a few day's use, and the cure is soon complete and lasting.

If you have not already taken advantage of this chance to get a month's medical treatment for 25 cents, be sure to call at Howard Gardner's today, for he has only a small amount of the specific on hand.

BOYS FROM TOBACCO TOWN DEFEATED BY DOYLE'S PATRIOTS

Three to Two Was Score of Fine Exhibition of National Game.

In a fine exhibition of the National sport at Cone park yesterday afternoon the Tobaccoists were defeated by Doyle's Patriots, the score being three and two. The game started in a light rain and after half of the first inning had to be called for ten minutes.

Eldridge twirled for the Patriots and ten men fanned the air in a futile effort to connect with the horsehide. Six hits were secured, three being infield hits. But for an error in the fourth by Bentley he would have shut the Tobaccoists out. Hanks twirled six innings for the Old Dominion boys and he fanned four, allowing three hits. He was relieved by Mullineaux, who was connected with five times, one hit being for two bases.

The Danville bunch are in fine shape and but one error was marked up against them. They fielded fine and were quite swift on the bases. Smith pegged to second perfectly and caught two runners, but one stolen base being marked up against him. H. Morgan made a fine one handed catch, robbing Lohman of a hit. The Patriots put up a good game, being switched around somewhat. Manager Doyle held down the third sack, while Fuller played second. Nippert, a catcher, held down the first sack in fine style. Corwin accepted five chances at short. Rickard made a fine catch in center, while Fuller made a spectacular catch with one hand. Ware was behind the bat and he gave a good account of himself.

The Patriots made two runs in the first inning. Rickard draws a pass and is sacrificed to second by Doyle. Rickard goes to third on a passed ball. Fuller fans and Bentley walks. Bentley steals second. Lohman singles and Rickard scores. Bentley scores on error of short. Corwin out pitcher to first. One hit, two bases on balls, a sacrifice, a stolen base and an error—two runs.

The Tobaccoists scored their runs in the fourth. Irwin bunts and beats it out. Smith bunts and beats the ball to first. Laughlin sacrifices and advances the runners a base. Bremmer is safe on fielder's choice and Irwin is out at the plate, pitcher to catcher. Bremmer steals second. Russell hits a fly to right and Bentley muffs it. Smith and Bremmer scoring. Russell goes to second on passed ball and to third on error of pitcher. Frye walks and is caught trying to purloin second, catcher to second. Two hits, two errors, base on balls, sacrifice, stolen base and passed ball—Two runs.

In the ninth Bentley, who allowed the Tobaccoists to score in the fourth, redeemed himself. He was first man up and the first ball was a strike. The second one was sent whirling far into left field and Bentley pulled up on second. Lohman followed with a neat single to right and Bentley crossed the plate with the winning run, no man out.

For Mt. Pleasant, Ritchie and Walsh starred and held matters within better bounds than they would otherwise have gone.
